JUDGE BARNARD'S RELATIONS TO THE PRESS.

It is well known that Judge Barnard, of New York city, the [illegible] of the bench, has long used the courts [illegible] Dick Turpin, of old, did the lonely heaths and solitary [illegible] in which to compel the wealthy to "Stand and deliver." [illegible]

[illegible]

A NEEDED REFORM.

One of the reforms which the Constitutional Convention ought to introduce, is a peremptory prohibition upon the Legislature of all interference in the details of city government. [illegible] powers of the municipal government [illegible] necessarily be obtained from the Legislature, but that, by no means, implies that the Legislature ought itself to engage in local legislation. [illegible]

MOUNT DESERT.

A New Boston Notion.

Beauty and Variety of Scenery at Mount Desert.

A Reason for Not Going There.

Attractions and Discomforts—Dress, Cost and Route.

[illegible]

For indeed the Bostonians who flock here in such numbers do enjoy it heartily, get positively infatuated with it, come year after year, and stay for two months at a stretch. The charm is in the scenery, and the variety of it. There are grander mountains, wilder gorges, better beaches, prettier rural pictures, at other places, even in New England. Newport has a finer surf, Nahant has rocks almost as grand, the Adirondack lakes are as beautiful, Mount Holyoke has as bold an ascent as any on this island. But nowhere are all these things combined in so close a circle, all to be enjoyed within easy drive or a brisk walk of one central point. Mount Desert has all together; and it is barely a dozen miles across it in its longest diameter. [illegible]

[illegible]

There is but one way, practically, to come to Mount Desert. The journey may indeed be made, tediously and expensively by land, via Bangor; but everybody comes from Boston to Portland by rail, and there takes the steamer for a twelve hours' voyage, which, though mainly among the islands of the coast, gets enough of the ocean swell to make about half the passengers sea-sick for a portion of the way. This summer the freshet of travel in this direction has been such as to make it necessary to engage staterooms on this vessel, the Lewiston, a week or ten days in advance.

It is announced by the Pittsburgh Commercial that Justice R. C. Grier, of the United States Supreme Court, "will resign early in the fall." The event is not unexpected to the legal profession, but it may not take place until some time during the winter, as it would be folly for him to cut himself off from the privileges of the law quoted below. Robert Cooper Grier was born in Cumberland County, in this State, on the 5th of March, 1794, and is therefore in his 76th year. He has lived a life of usefulness and distinction. [illegible]

TWELFTH WARD REPUBLICANS.

Meeting of the Other Club—The Resolutions Adopted—The Debate.

A meeting of the other Twelfth Ward Republican Club was held at No. [illegible] West Lake street, last evening. About one hundred and fifty persons were present, many of them members of club No. 1. Hon. H. B. Miller, the President, occupied the chair.

In calling the meeting to order, the President said the object was to make preparations for the fall campaign.

Ald. Carpenter offered the following resolutions:

[illegible]

Clark Geib asked whether the citizens of the Twelfth Ward exclusively were to vote, or whether men from other wards were. Some from other wards were present—members of Court House and other rings.

The President remarked that he presumed that the meeting was one of the citizens of the Twelfth Ward. He knew of no Court House ring or other ring.

Ald. Carpenter thought the remarks of Mr. Geib were out of order.

The President said he was willing to allow the largest latitude to all.

DANGEROUS BUILDINGS.

To the Editor of The Chicago Tribune:

SIR: In Tuesday's TRIBUNE I see that you have made some well-timed remarks on the condition of the new county wing of the Court House. The same remarks will apply well to the new building now being put up opposite to the Matteson House. The iron posts that support the front wall have taken a decided liking for Dearborn street and lean in that direction. Now, if the building on the side next to Dearborn street should at any future time be removed, the new building will fall and nothing can prevent it. Your coming out and giving the benefit of your observations to the public will have a good effect, and may, perhaps, save many valuable lives. I am a stranger in the city, out seeing the sights, and this is one of the places of interest that met my eye. The building is out about six inches from the perpendicular.

Results of the Health-Lift.

The appointment of A. N. Towne, Esq., to the Assistant Superintendency of the Central Pacific, at a salary of $12,000 per year, in gold, and the fact of Mr. Towne's having been among the first patrons of the Health-Lift, and the first to recognize its value by the purchase of an apparatus for the use of the employes in the general offices of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad, suggests a moral for ambitious railroad men as well as those in other branches of business. Already is the application being made, in the purchase of Health-Lifts, by such establishments as the Chicago & Northwestern, our neighbors of the Evening Post and our muscular brethren of the Advance, the Third National and other banks, Chicago Theological Seminary, Root & Cady, Lyman, Aldrich & Lincoln, Hall, Kimbark & Co., and numerous other leading houses.

First-Class Engraving.

There appears on the first page of to-day's paper the card of Messrs. Maas & Mann, located at the northwest corner of Dearborn and Madison streets. This firm has recently opened a complete engraving establishment, and is ready to do all work in first-class style. The greater number of the cuts which have appeared in the American Builder have been executed at this establishment, and among them those of the Merchant's Insurance, Union Bank, First National and Tribune Buildings.

Railroad Disasters.

PHILADELPHIA, August 24.—A report has reached here of a collision on the Reading Railroad, this morning, above Norristown, by which nearly one hundred coal cars were demolished and two men killed. Two coal trains collided and were run into by another train. All passenger trains have been delayed on that road to-day.

INDIANAPOLIS, August 24.—A freight train on the Jeffersonville Road, leaving here at 7 p. m., broke through the bridge over Pleasant Run, three miles from this city. The engine passed over safely, but wrecked the tender and thirteen freight cars. One brakeman was hurt, but is not considered seriously.

Death Sentences in Memphis.

MEMPHIS, August 24.—Two negroes were sentenced to death for murder a few days since. One, named Woods, confessed to having ravished a beautiful young lady during the war. Another negro was hung by a mob for the deed, Woods having stolen his hat and left it behind to mislead.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

The Juniper Tar Soap is the best toilet soap ever made, as it may be used with impunity by ladies with the most tender skins; at the same time it is invaluable as a remedy for pimples, rough or chapped hands and all cutaneous diseases where other soaps cannot be used without aggravating the malady and giving pain to the patient. ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE INTERNATIONAL BOAT RACE.

LONDON, August 24.

The Harvard and Oxford University crews were out to-day, but only made short trips up and down the river. The Harvards to-day have been practising starts. They have decided to use Elliott's boat for the race. Walter Brown, who recently arrived here with Tyler, will assist at the start. Kelley confidently asserts that the Harvards must win, and thinks the match will be virtually finished before the boats reach Hammersmith bridge. Brown also declares his belief that the Americans will come in first. Betting to-night stands 2 to 1 on Oxfords.

THE ARRANGEMENTS

for preserving order on and about the river on the day of the race are all that could be desired. The Commissioners of Police have detailed 800 men to guard the river bank during the race.

BROWN-RENFORTH.

Arrangements for a match between Walter Brown and Renforth have not yet been completed. Brown declines to row on the Tyne, finding that river unsuitable, but he has no objections to the Thames. Renforth will probably accept Brown's challenge to row on the latter river.

The Times, on the boat race, says: Good judges assert that the Harvards show signs of over-training. River watermen, however, favor the idea that they must win the race. Boating men generally are divided, the majority being in favor of the Oxfords.
